Strasburg

Yesterday & Today - established 1874

More than 130 years ago, German settlers first migrated to this unbroken prairie to begin a new community. These hardworking immigrants soon turned the rich soil into productive farms. Many farms have stayed in the family for several generations.

While traditions of the German heritage still remain, the village has enveloped many nationalities into its culture. The end result is the hospitality, values, and quaintness that characterize this small, well kept, and safe community!

Sarah Locke, Miss Strasburg 2013-2014

Strasburg is a great place to live because everyone you pass is a friendly and familiar face. Everyone in the town really cares about

Strasburg so it makes it a clean and safe environment.

Strasburg's School System

stands apart from the rest...

Stewardson-Strasburg School is well-known for its outstanding school system. Small class sizes allow for one-on-one attention between students and teachers.

Students consistently excel in both academics and athletics.

They also have the opportunity to participate in a variety of clubs, such as Drama, Jazz Band, new gym, updated classrooms, library, and new computer lab and media center.

The school was awarded the 2008 Bright Star Award of Excellence, based on districts with high student performance at low cost.

Business & Housing

Strasburg offers tax abatement incentives in its TIF district with lots available for qualified businesses and homeowners. The newly formed subdivision, York Acres, offers spacious lots and a quiet setting, while still offering the benefits of the community. Call 217.644.3007 today for more information.
